in 2017

PITTSBURGH'S OLDEST INDEPENDENT SCHOOL

315 Academy Ave
Sewickley
(412) 741-2230

Since 1838, SEWICKLEY ACADEMY'S teaching and learning practices have been guided by four core values: character, educational vigor, diversity & community. The Academy's teachers inspire students to reach their full potential. In their dynamic classrooms, experiential learning is the norm.

Sewickley Academy encourages all students to embrace a continuous journey of self-discovery by exploring new ideas and opportunities, in their own backyard or around the globe. An invaluable benefit of the Sewickley Academy experience is their single Pre-K through Grade 12 campus, where cross-age interactions are intentionally integrated into the fabric of students' lives. Astronauts, doctors, fashion designers, engineers, filmmakers, zombie experts, world travelers — wherever they go, whatever they do, however they choose to lead their lives — Sewickley Academy alumni are proof that students become determined, courageous, and caring individuals ready to take on life's challenges. *Sewickley Academy. A HOLISTIC APPROACH TO FAMILY LAW

54 South 12th St
2nd Fl, Pittsburgh
(412) 567-6613

Whether you are facing the dissolution of a marriage, custody of a child, support issues, or other related matters, at the core of each issue is a relationship in transition. ATTORNEY REBECCA E. PUHAC uses a holistic approach to address family law needs. The goal of her practice is to help you achieve stabilization and promote healing during one of the most difficult times you may face.

With 17 years of experience, Rebecca takes the time to discover the core values and priorities of the people she serves and offers alternative solutions, which include family law mediation and divorce litigation. She will assist you in creating a parenting plan, establishing alimony and child support payments, step parent adoption & domestic violence. Visit: www.pittsburghdivorcelaw.net

CRIMINAL DEFENSE & DUI

ATTORNEY CASEY P. MULLEN concentrates primarily in criminal defense and handles cases involving family law, and probate & estates. He knows that being charged with any criminal offense is a frightening experience. Defendants need to know their rights under the law and act to protect them immediately — before memories fade, evidence is lost or witnesses disappear.

As a trial lawyer, Casey's areas of interest include homicide & all violent crimes, sexual assault, DUI & traffic violations, drug crimes, child abuse & neglect, white-collar crimes, armed robbery & burglary, domestic violence & assault and probation & parole violations. He defends both adults & juveniles in state & federal courts at the trial & appellate levels. Visit: www.caseymullenlaw.com

DIVORCE & FAMILY LAWYER

Attorney Amanda C. Cook at COOK & ASSOCIATES concentrates in matrimonial law & custody and understands the concerns and challenges of family law litigation. Distribution of assets, alimony, child support, parental rights & sustainable child access and property settlement are examined in the context of what is available, negotiable & achievable. Her goal is to achieve a solution that includes a logical division of assets and a stable contractual settlement that maintains and sustains any future relationship between parties.

Amanda has 12 years of legal experience and is trained as a mediator. She returns telephone calls and emails promptly, and spells out the conditions of her engagement in a detailed retainer agreement. Visit: www.pittlawyers.com
