PROTECTING YOUR FAMILY AND YOUR MONEY

Attorney Salmeh Fodor at GEORGIA FAMILY MATTERS is committed to aggressively representing her clients to protect their families, their children and their finances. With 14 years of experience, Ms. Fodor serves as a trusted advisor and advocate in matters of divorce, custody, visitation, child support, alimony, palimony, asset distribution, contempt, modification of child support & custody, interstate child support, international child support, paternity, prenuptial agreements and postnuptial agreements.

One of the most difficult decisions for a client can be when to fight and when to settle. However, the first Court Order or Settlement can be the most important. Ms. Fodor's years of experience allow her to identify which clients are best served by fighting and taking a case to a judge or jury, and which clients are best served by reaching an amicable settlement. As an essential part of Ms. Fodor's approach, she provides personal and confidential service.

ATLANTA DIVORCE ATTORNEY

ATTORNEY SHALAMAR J. PARHAM understands that divorce presents many dramatic changes and concerns, but it also presents various options and solutions. The ultimate goal of establishing a new, healthy life for everyone involved can be lost in the day-to-day worries. Solving problems using available resources furthers that goal and allows Shalamar's divorce clients to sort out options during an extremely stressful period in their lives. Property distribution, alimony, child support, child custody, medical & emotional support and related family issues are examined at the various stages of a divorce case. Shalamar's overall goal is to reach as peaceful a solution as possible while still aggressively protecting her client's rights.

Community oriented, Shalamar is an avid public speaker on family law topics and offers her office as a family law boutique. Her legal services are tailored specifically to each client and their family, with personal & effective legal services. She believes that when the family is involved, no issue should stand alone.
